

NICHOLAS, RUSSIAN GRAND DUKE, AGAIN REPORTED KILLED

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Reports persist that the Bolsheviks have executed three Russian grand dukes. Advice from Moscow to the Bayerische Zeitung, of Munich, assert that one of those put to death was Nicholas Nicholavitch, former commander in chief of the Russian armies. Early in the present year former Grand Duke Nicholas was reported in German papers to have been executed. These reports were later denied by Russia. The latest report was that he was arrested at Moscow on July 14 last. An Amsterdam report recently said that four grand dukes had been seized by an unidentified band. The names of the grand dukes were given as Igor, Constantine, Ivan, Constantinovitch, and Serge Michaelovitch.

PROF. WILLIAMS DIES.

The American minister at Havana has cabled to the committee on public information of the death of Prof. Williams, of Ithaca, N. Y. His death followed an attack of pleurisy. Arrangements are being completed to send the body to Ithaca.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

President and Mrs. Wilson Attend Launching at Hog Island Shipyard. Preparations for White House Wedding.

THE President and Mrs. Wilson, who went this morning to the Hog Island shipyard near Philadelphia, to witness the launching of the first big freighter built there, were accompanied by Miss Margaret Wilson, John Randolph Bolling and Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson. The White House party left town at 9 o'clock on a special train and will return at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Wilson will be sponsor for the great vessel, which will be christened the Quistoonck, said to be the Indian name for Hog Island. The First Lady of the Land also had the privilege of selecting the name by which the first vessel to take the water from the enormous new shipyard will be known. A large official party, including Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board, cabinet officers and their assistants, and members of Congress are at Hog Island to witness the ceremonies.

There is little at the White House to suggest that it is to see its fiftieth wedding on Wednesday evening—none of the bustle of preparation, the coming and going of messengers, the stream of express and delivery wagons which usually precedes such an event. Most of the excitement connected with the coming marriage of the President's niece, Miss Alice Wilson, and the Rev. Isaac Stuart McElroy centers for the moment about the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Wilson, in Baltimore. The guests—a few arriving there; and the members of the house party to be entertained at the White House for the historic event will not reach Washington until tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson entertained informally at dinner at their apartment on Saturday evening for a number of their friends from the South who are interested in their daughter's marriage. Among them were Mrs. C. G. Wilson, of Clarksville, Tenn., who went over from Washington, accompanied by her two daughters, Miss Caroline Wilson and Miss Sarah Wilson, who are doing Government work here. Mrs. Natalie B. Reynolds, also of Clarksville, who is engaged in Government work in Washington, was also present at the dinner.

Belgian Envoy Returning.

The Belgian Minister, Mr. de Cartier de Marchienne, who has been

MME. LOPEZ GUTIERREZ.

Wife of the Minister of Honduras and a recent addition to Washington's diplomatic colony.

to town tomorrow. While in Newport R.I., he was the guest of Capt. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, who also had Major Crawford Stuart, of the British embassy staff, with them for a visit.

Miss Frances Sullivan, of Radnor, Pa., is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. and Mrs. Albert Lincoln Hoffman, at their home in Cleveland Park.

Mrs. John R. Williams, who was in Washington last week for a few days, has returned to Edgewater, the summer home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter, at Beverly Farms, Mass., where she is spending the summer. While in Washington Mrs. Williams was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Sidney Webb.

Mrs. Webb's daughter, Mrs. James F. Mitchell, is in town for a few days from her home at Harbor and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Webb. Dr. Mitchell, who is now in the service, is on duty at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va.

Mrs. Burleson Returning. Mrs. Albert Sidney Burleson, wife of the Postmaster General, is expected in town this evening after a short stay in Maryland.

Mrs. George F. Downey, wife of Colonel Downey, U. S. A., who is with her sister, Mrs. Fairfax Landstreet, at Southampton, L. I., will return to town on Wednesday. Capt. George F. Downey, Jr., who has been in Washington for a few days since his return from France, is now in Southampton with Mrs. Landstreet.

Shipping Chiefs Rest. Edward N. Hurley and Charles M. Schwab, of the Shipping Board, made a brief holiday visit to Atlantic City and spent the week end at the Traymore Hotel.

Mrs. Martin R. Stonestreet, wife of Lieutenant Stonestreet, U. S. N., is in Washington for a visit while her husband is at sea, and is with her mother, Mrs. A. A. Cedarwald. Mrs. Stonestreet was formerly Miss Esther Whiting.

Capt. Angus Mackintosh, honorary attaché of the British embassy, is at the Belmont Hotel, New York, for a short visit. Captain Mackintosh and Lady Macintosh, who is the daughter of the governor general of Canada, have a cottage at Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., for the summer.

Patton-Glennon Wedding.

The marriage of Mrs. Philip Glennon, formerly Miss Janet K. Jones, daughter of Mrs. John K. Jones, of Richmond, and Lieut. James D. Patton, Jr., U. S. R., took place this morning in Old St. Paul's Church, Richmond. The ceremony, which followed close upon the announcement of the engagement of the young couple, was quiet and only the two families and a few intimate friends were present. After a brief wedding trip Lieutenant Patton and his bride will live near Camp Meade, Md., where he is on duty. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Patton, of Richmond. The bride is the widow of Ensign Philip Glennon, son of Rear Admiral and Mrs. James H. Glennon, who died within a few weeks of his marriage to Miss Jones.

To Visit Parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Frazer, of Nashville, Tenn., and their small daughter will arrive in town tomorrow to be with Mrs. Frazer's parent, Commander and Mrs. Edwin H. Tillman, U. S. N., for a few days, after which they will accompany Commander and Mrs. Tillman and Miss Margherita Tillman to their summer home at Jamestown, R. I.

Last evening Commander and Mrs. Tillman entertained at dinner in compliment to Ensign and Mrs. Albert Beecher Crawford, U. S. N., who are their guests. Mrs. Crawford was Miss Gladys Christy, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Harley H. Christy. Her marriage to Ensign Crawford took place last Wednesday in Jamestown, R. I., preparations having been hastened on account of his orders to duty in Washington.

Lieut. E. Roland N. Harriman, U. S. R., and Mrs. Harriman, who have been at Hot Springs, Va., have gone to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., by motor to remain for several days.

Col. and Mrs. Joseph H. Earle will leave Washington tomorrow, where they have been stationed for some time, this evening. They will visit Colonel Earle's mother in Greenville, S. C., and will spend a week or two in the mountains of North Carolina before going to Charleston, S. C., their new post, at the expiration of a month's leave.

Mrs. George Barnett, wife of the major general commandant of the marine corps, who has gone to her country home, Wakefield Manor, in Southampton, L. I., will return to town on Wednesday. Mrs. Barnett expects to go to Narragansett before the season closes. She will visit Mrs. Irving Chase.

Miss Bromwell Joins Farmerettes. Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell motored down to Foxcroft Camp, Va., yesterday, taking with her Miss Mildred Bromwell, her daughter, who goes to join the colony of farmerettes engaged in the orchards and on the farms nearby. Miss Bromwell was a student at the Foxcroft School, and a number of her schoolmates are already there wearing overalls and doing good work in the fields.

Burwell S. Cutler, chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the Department of Commerce, and Mrs. Cutler motored to Philadelphia to pass the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Lister. Mr. Cutler returned to town last evening and Mrs. Cutler will motor back later in the week.

Rear Admiral Leigh C. Palmer, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, is making a short visit in White Sulphur Springs, where Mrs. Palmer is spending the season.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt gave a tea at Beaulieu, their Newport home, yesterday for their debutante daughter, Miss Grace Vanderbilt. The guests numbered over 300, and the scene resembled a reception at an army or navy post, since almost every one from the naval station and from Fort Adams was present.

Among those well known in Washington who were present were the Governor of Rhode Island and Mrs. Livingston Beekman, the Belgian minister, Mr. de Cartier de Marchienne; Major Crawford Stuart, of the British embassy staff; Capt. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, and Miss Marguerite Caperton.

Dance for Red Cross.

One of a series of dances for the benefit of the Red Cross was given on Saturday evening at Dodge Park Lodge, Prince George's county, Md. These fortnightly entertainments have proven very popular, not only with residents of Prince George's county, but with Washingtonians. Mrs. Duff, the charming hostess of this pleasant summer resort, was assisted in receiving on Saturday evening by Miss Grace Hurd, of Des Moines, Iowa. About seventy-five couples were present.

Among the guests was former Senator Martin Dodge of Ohio, who built the lodge in the heart of 200 acres of woodland and who lived there with his family for many years.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nixon Moss announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marian Morris Moss, to James Blount Dickey, first lieutenant, U. S. N. A., of New York city, at present attached to the office of the chief of staff in Washington. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Knapp, of Massachusetts avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Knapp, to Wesley Theodore Huntress, of this city. The date of the wedding has not yet been set.

Mrs. Thomas Holcomb, Jr., has joined her parents, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Richardson Clover, at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where they are spending the summer.

Miss Madeleine Menke, who has been visiting Miss Blanche Levy, has returned to her home in New York.

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms, and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Would a Blouse Like This Appeal to You?

—It is made of Georgette crepe, in that fine, soft, yet crispy quality that is adorably fascinating in the way it drapes and hangs. We have them of white, flesh color, and bisque.

Made with a little collar of an exquisite soft blue. The small round, medieval yoke that finishes off the round neck in front is of blue, and is hemstitched to the blouse; below this the front of the blouse is beautifully embroidered in beads in blue with combinations of white or colors. It is lovely. —Two other very new models are in street shades and combinations, brown, taupe, navy, plum, and green, trimmed in bisque, and embroidered in bisque and self color. One style has round neck, the other has a high collar, and both are very smart, and practical styles. —Besides those mentioned we have a host of other styles in both light and dark colorings. —All sizes in the lot. Choice.

OUR ADVANCE STYLES IN New Fall Suits

—Received an enthusiastic welcome when they were announced and placed on display last week. Just a suggestion—this year the woman who secures an advanced style is going to be more individual than the woman who buys later, because if there is to be a restriction on the number of styles put out by suit makers it will be after the trend of favor for a certain number of styles has been indicated, yet the more striking style, which has a trifle of daring originality about it that would not appeal to everyone may be exactly the model to suit you remarkably well. It is certainly worth while to come and see.

—Many of the coats to these new suits are cut longer than has been the case during the last season, and they are built on decidedly mannish lines, some have notch collars, and others fasten close about the chin; edges are usually braid bound, and many are trimmed with buttons. The new skirts are very straight, and while permitting perfect freedom of movement do not waste material.

—Among these new arrivals will be seen many fur-trimmed styles, made with panel-back coats, some with the bottom of the coat skirt cut in uneven effect; some show decided points, and are ornamented with stitching. —The materials are handsome Douvet de Laine, Velour, Broadcloth, Tricotine, Gabardine, Silverstone, and Serge, and the prices range from $29.75 to $89.75

Packers' Profits—Large or Small

Packers' profits look big—

When the Federal Trade Commission reports that four of them earned $140,000,000 during the three war years.

Packers' profits look small—

When it is explained that this profit was earned on total sales of over four and a half billion dollars—or only about three cents on each dollar of sales.

This is the relation between profits and sales:

Sales ■■■■■

If no packer profits had been earned, you could have bought your meat at only a fraction of a cent per pound cheaper!

Packers' profits on meats and animal products have been limited by the Food Administration since November 1, 1917.
